Virginia Tech Students To Perform Here Saturday Night

The NEW VIRGINIANS from Virginia Tech will perform in Appomattox on Saturday night.

Presented as a Bicentennial event by the Appomattox Lions Club, the 8:00 p.m. performance will be held in the new Appomattox County High School auditorium.

The enthusiastic Virginia Tech students who perform with Stan Kingma have a motto they obviously believe in: "There's no fun without music and no music without fun."

In the ten years since Kingma has been putting together musical groups, touring Virginia and the surrounding states for concert dates, they have convinced a whole lot of people that combining good fun and excellent music generates an excitement you have to see and hear to believe.

The 20 member show troupe and the accompanying instrumentalists produce a more exciting sound and visual impact than ever, and the "no music without fun" comes through stronger than before. The personal excitement of the singers is contagious.

Reviewing a recording of the entertainers last year, the National Choral Journal put it this way: "The spontaneous rapport that exists between the audience and the performers is real and appreciative. The enthusiasm of the group is present in every song, and this alone makes this record a successful endeavor."

Kingma's young singers, the magazine noted, have "that unique quality that so many groups lack - - - a sense of unity, enthusiasm, spirit and dedication. These are qualities that no composer or arranger can write into a manuscript. Only the conductor can discover and reveal this feeling of song from his performers."

Closer home, another reviewer, Art Rowe of The Richmond Times-Dispatch listened to one of the Virginia Tech albums and wrote: "Voices from Virginia Tech lend this sound of music a warm sound of enchantment . . . one listening session . . . and one knows they sing because they love to sing, and it's quite apparent Kingma loves to hear them sing at their very best."

Others have been equally enthusiastic. A Roanoke Times reviewer reported one of the group's performances in the Roanoke Civic Center packed the house, and demonstrated "a vivacity that is at the same time personal and total." The performers he added, obviously are "together in spirit, and together in song."

Further up the valley a Waynesboro reviewer went to listen and came back thoroughly convinced. It was, he said, "a tremendous performance . . . an appealing, entertaining concert that ended all too soon."

And in Southside Virginia, a Danville reviewer described the group's infectious enthusiasm, "which held the audience under the spell of the music all evening."

A few years ago, Times Dispatch columnist, Charles McDowell reported on an impromptu concert by the Tech singers in the capitol in Washington, and the reaction of Sen. Harry F. Byrd, Jr. of Virginia. "It was," Sen. Bryd observed, "The most stirring concert ever presented here, and I say that as a VMI man."

McDowell himself obviously was caught up in the singer's

Arthritis Foundation Sets Forum

The Central Virginia Branch of the Arthritis Founation will hold a public forum on April 9, 1975 at 7:30 p.m. at the Virginia Baptist Hospital Auditorium.

The guest speaker will be Mr. Jerry J. Walsh, who is the director of special services for The Arthritis Foundation and a leading authority on arthritis quackery in the United States. He has suffered from rhematoid arthritis since age eighteen.

Mr. Walsh has traveled throughout the country speaking at public forums and on radio and television on the quack devices available to arthritis sufferers. He was named "Handicapped American of the Year" in 1963 by the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

This weekend presents visitors with an excellent opportunity to understand and appreciate the significance of the dramatic events which occurred at Appomattox 110 years ago.

Mouth Cancer Detection Day Set For April 13

Sunday, April 13, 1975, has been designated as Mouth Cancer Detection Day for the Appomattox area.

The clinic will be free to all who register from 12 noon until 5 p.m. sponsored by the Appomattox Dental Society, The American Cancer Society and your state and local health departments.

The clinics will be located in the Dental Office of Dr. S. R. Lawson and Dr. John Fedison.

The examination will include a study of the facial features, the lips, cheeks, gums, tongue, and the roof and floor of the mouth. It will take approximately 3 to 5 minutes for the dentist to make the examination and to insure if the patient has any visual signs of possible oral disease. If further tests are required, an oral surgeon will be available to make or complete the tests. The examination and tests are free, including any counseling service that might be required at a later date.

Doctor C. G. O'Brien, Chairman of the Planning Committee said: "Mouth Cancer is painless you may not be aware of the disease - only a dentist or physician can tell by a quick and thorough examination. This cancer if found early has almost a 100 percent cure rate but if allowed to grow and spread it becomes one of the most deadly of all cancers bringing disfiguration and death".

Although mouth cancer is generally a disease of persons over forty years of age, all area residents are encouraged to attend. Persons under 18 will be examined if they are aware of some unusual condition in or about the mouth and are accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Mouth cancer is generally painless in its earliest stages, and many persons are not aware of its growth until it is

Burning Law In Effect

The Outdoor Burning Law, the law requiring safety in burning brush, trash, and other debris, became effective Mar. 1.

David Smith, Chief Forester for Appomattox County, said the law, known sometimes as the 4 p.m. law and the brush burning law, actually applies to the burning of any materials in the outdoors.

The regulation, designed to reduce the number of escaped grass and forest fires, requires that burning of any materials or debris, can be done only between the hours of 4 p.m. and 12 midnight if the fire is in or within 300 feet of forestland, brushland, or other inflammable material. The law is in
